(Photo: Screengrab) Mumbai: Bollywood veteran Farhan Akhtar's next film, Bajirao Mastani, which will also star former cricketer and Bollywood actor Boman Irani, seems to have outpaced Hollywood hit Captain America: The Winter Soldier, which released on February 23, in ticket sales. Apart from India, the Bollywood movie also released across the globe including the United Kingdom, the US and other markets. India's Bollywood movie saw impressive audience numbers despite the general slowdown in the film industry. Top trade publication, Motion Picture Association India, reported that the total number of ticket sales till January 31, 2015, grew 13 per cent to 54 crore. The movie has created expectations of the industry and the rest of the country, says trade expert Taran Adarsh. "Bajirao Mastani remains locked on top spot with a total share of 30.7 per cent," says Adarsh. "Captain America: The Winter Soldier slips to the second spot with a share of 26.6 per cent." The Hollywood movie, which has been running in several countries since February, has opened worldwide. Earlier reports said that movie had created demand among the customers to visit cinema halls. "The film kept collecting among different categories in a positive manner," says Adarsh. "Bajirao Mastani tops the Hindi version, keeping with good holds," he adds. Actor Boman Irani has also become a household name with his last films, including Once Upon a Time in Mumbai, Life Out of Hand and Love Come. Other releases of the year have also opened well in the Hindi version. Among them are the films Aksar 2, Sonu Ke Titu Ki Sweety, Brahmastra and Sanam Re. According to Adarsh, the share of Manoj Bajpayee and Irrfan Khan's films, which are part of the popular Vivek Oberoi
